Lotus Communications:

Lotus Communications Corp. is one of the largest privately owned Radio Station Groups in the United States. It was founded in 1962 by Howard A. Kalmenson, with the purchase of KWKW, one of Los Angeles' original Spanish language radio stations. Lotus currently owns and operates 34 radio stations in Arizona, California & Nevada, 2 television stations in Arizona & Texas and 5 e-commerce sites. They are very proud to provide a "home" to over 400 full-time and part-time employees.

Job Description:

The chosen applicant will be responsible for operating a station's studio sound board (mixer) within a computerized, automated environment. They will supervise the automated play of the daily FCC program logs and make adjustments as needed, monitor equipment and answer telephone inquiries. The ideal candidate will have the ability to work independently and under pressure. They should possess good computer skills, self-discipline and the ability to multi-task. They need to be punctual, dependable and responsible with equipment. Bilingual Spanish/English preferred but not required

A qualified applicant must be available to work weekend, evening and some holiday hours.
